

teen sitcom

Created by Jessica Wright and Christopher Greaves
(C) 2014

Set in the 1980's this hilarious sitcom follows the lives of a group of slightly odd characters working at a rundown movie theatre. The staff is made up of five teenagers who range from the neurotic to the narcissistic, a bungling manager and a mysterious mystical projectionist who no one has ever seen. This group puts the "dysfunction" in dysfunctional. As they navigate their way from one mishap to another they barely manage to keep the doors open but somehow they always seem to pull together because they have one thing in common; they need this job.

Sizzle reel available.
